

Catholics and Protestants in Conversation

Gary Michuta is a renowned defender of the Catholic faith. He is the author of many books, including "Why Catholic Bibles are Bigger", "Making Sense of Mary" and "How to Wolf-Proof Your Kids". His website HandsOnApologetics.com is a leading resource for those who seek to better understand issues relating to Catholicism. He has appeared on EWTN, Catholic Answers, The Journey Home, Kresta in the Afternoon, and other well-known Catholic programs.

Jeff Kliewer is a missionary to inner city Philadelphia, where he has worked for the last 11 years to help establish churches. He focuses on evangelism and has initiated a number of ministries, including an after-school bible club and festivals throughout the city. His new book "Good Enough?" outlines God's plan of salvation as found in the book of Romans.

Join Gary and Jeff for a moderated public debate about God's plan of salvation. Admission is free. No reservations needed. Opportunity for audience questions will be given.

Does Romans teach justification by faith apart from works?
